On the majestic Pink Granite Coast, this charming property elegantly combines Breton heritage, top-of-the-range renovation and seaside living.
Just 800 metres from the beach and close to the shops, this former presbytery and its stone guest house, renovated in 2023, offer an

DESCRIPTION

The south-facing main house spans three stories. It has a recent roof and offers refined features in keeping with the original architecture.
The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, a storeroom, a fitted kitchen, a toilet, a dining room, a bright lounge with a fireplace, a bedroom with a shower room and toilet, a wine cellar and a laundry room.Upstairs, a corridor leads to five spacious bedrooms, a large bathroom with shower and a separate toilet.In the attic, an open-plan games room and a bedroom with a shower room offer the potential for further conversion.
The second house, which is completely independent, has a warm, authentic feel. Accessed via a private entrance, it features a large living room with open fireplace, dining room and kitchen opening onto a private paved courtyard, as well as a toilet, storeroom and bicycle garage. Upstairs: two bedrooms and a large shower room with utility room. This outbuilding lends itself perfectly to top-of-the-range accommodation or luxury holiday lets.
This stone-walled property of more than 1,800 m² in the centre of town also features an 11 x 5 metre concrete swimming pool, covered and heated by a recent heat pump, with a counter-current swimming system and a depth of up to 2.5 metres. This wellness area is set in the absolute peace and quiet of the grounds, allowing you to relax in complete privacy.
Gardens and courtyards, numerous parking.
