DESCRIPTIF

Seeking ultimate elegance, a haven of tranquility away from the city bustle, and a home where refined luxury harmoniously blends with the art of living. Look no further, you've found it.

Nestled in a charming commune in Île-de-France, hidden from view, this exceptional property embodies a heritage of distinction. With its 1,700 inhabitants, this haven of tranquility was once the refuge of illustrious personalities such as Edith Piaf, who owned a country house here, a place steeped in history and prestige.

Within a triangle defined by the architectural jewels of Montfort l'Amaury, Thoiry, and Houdan, this residence is nestled in an idyllic setting, cradled by the majesty of a flamboyant Gothic church, the famous Saint-Georges church, classified as a historical monument since 1905.

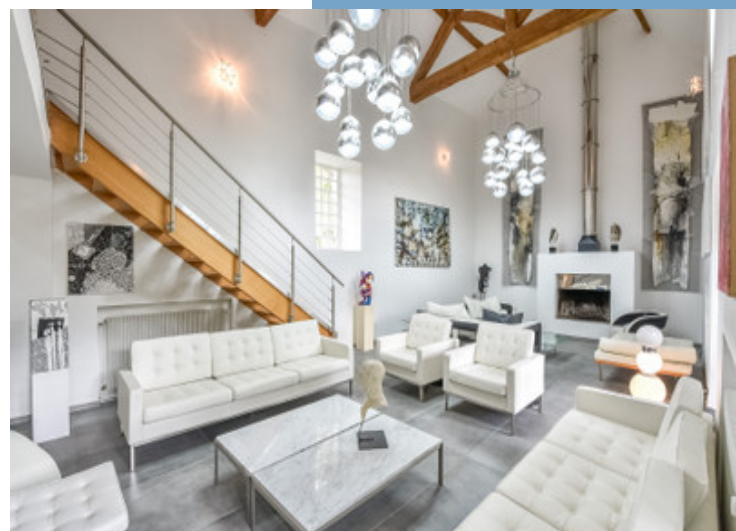

The exclusivity of this property is revealed through an 18th-century manor house, accompanied by rustic buildings transformed into living and reception spaces. Meticulously renovated, where every detail has been thought out with finesse, it has given rise to a residence of 665 m², spread over three levels, imbued with an aura of timeless elegance.

Unfolding its charms as soon as you step inside, the property reveals an enchanting veranda, overlooking a fountain, inviting you to a promising discovery. The ground floor, adorned with authentic terracotta tiles, welcomes a light-filled dining room, a 40 m² living room offering picturesque views of the park, a master bedroom with en-suite bathroom
