DESCRIPTION

Set among the vineyards of the Aude, close to Carcassonne and the Canal du Midi, this remarkable former wine estate combines a private family home with four independent gîtes, a large swimming pool, approximately 1.6 hectares of vines and an extraordinary collection of former agricultural and wine-making buildings.

With 13 principal bedrooms across the main residence and guest accommodation, the property is already operated as a seasonal holiday rental business, with a particular focus on exclusive group stays of up to 20 guests. Its scale, layout and extensive outbuildings also offer exciting possibilities for buyers looking to develop a tourism, retreat or hospitality project, subject to any necessary permissions.

The domaine extends over approximately 2.14 hectares and offers an unusual degree of separation between private and guest life.

THE MAIN HOUSE

The private residence provides approximately 167 m² of accommodation and is arranged over two levels.

The living areas include a spacious lounge, a generous kitchen/dining room, an office/cloakroom and a separate WC. The sleeping accommodation comprises three independently accessed bedrooms plus an additional connecting room currently used as a fourth bedroom, offering flexibility as a child's room, dressing room, office or private sitting room. There are two bathrooms.

An important advantage for anyone intending to continue the letting activity is the house's private terrace, situated directly outside the residence...
