Originally built for the love of a local nobleman, this château has a romantic history spanning more than 150 years. Set in remarkably private walled and hedged grounds, raised above street level, the property features an in-ground, all-season heated Roman-style saltwater swimming pool, air conditioning, extensive

DESCRIPTION

GROUND FLOOR

The château is entered through two massive solid oak doors with wrought-iron fittings, opening into a generous entrance hall. To the left is a beautiful circular oak staircase with ornate iron railing, finished with a custom woven sisal runner, which rises through the upper levels of the house.

To the right, through two antique oak doors, is the new gourmet commercial-sized kitchen, centred around a magnificent old stone fireplace. Within the château-style fireplace sits a very large commercial gas and electric cooker with double oven, six gas burners and hotplate.

The kitchen also features a large double-door refrigerator with icemaker, separate wine refrigerator, stunning three-metre marble centre island and custom stainless-steel countertops.

Adjoining the kitchen is a laundry and utility room with large 17kg washing machine and dryer, utility sink and extensive cupboards.

To the left of the entrance hall is Bedroom I, furnished with a double bed and an en-suite within the room incorporating a shower, sink and WC.

A further door leads to two large storage rooms with extensive shelving, and there is also a separate WC in the hallway.

From the entrance hall, two beautiful antique oak doors open into the substantial living room, featuring a lovely working Napoleonic black marble fireplace. Windows have electric shutters and overlook the private rear grounds, swimming pool, entertainment area and raised gazebo. Fibre Wi-Fi and satellite TV connections are located...
