This lovely light, bright chalet would not only make the perfect second home but, it also doubles up as a fabulous rental property. Sleeping up to 11 guests across 5 bedrooms. Located in a peaceful area of the resort yet only a few minutes walk to ski lifts, restaurants, bars & shops. There is a large free carpark within 200m of the chalet.

DESCRIPTION

The chalet is luminous & light & has been fully decorated in neutral tones.

Entrance room with plenty of storage

Open plan living room, kitchen diner with a lovely log burning stove

A balcony with fully morning sunshine

A second storage area with tucked away laundry room

On the top floor are three lovely bedrooms with different views. One of them has an ensuite shower and WC, the other 2 share a bathroom with a bath and overhead shower. All of the bedrooms can be configured as twin or superking which makes for great flexibility when renting. It is already managed by a trusted property management company in resort. (there is no obligation to stick to this arrangement but they have a good repeat client base)

The downstairs area is laid out as a relaxing games room, with an additional bedroom which can be twins or superking, this has a large owners store which could be converted to a shower room. There is also a cabin or snug (no window) room but it has a double bed and a bunk so perfect for kids. The door can be left open for natural light from the games room. You could even have a sofa bed down there and make a separate kids area. There is a shared shower room.

The downstairs leads out to a terrace which has afternoon sun and a little BBQ area which is delightful in spring and summer.

The furniture and equipment is not in the listing price but the owners would consider selling the chalet as turnkey

Sainte Foy Tarentaise is a discreet and highly regarded s...
