This lovely bastide-style villa with typical terra cotta flooring throughout was built in the early 1980's and faces south-east, sitting atop a fully-enclosed 2842m² plot of land in a tranquil setting on the outskirts of the small, market town of Peymeinade, just north of Cannes.

DESCRIPTION

Once through the electric gates the short driveway leads up to the villa, with ample parking immediately to the left but also to the right, at what is the rear of the house. Let's imagine we've parked directly to the left and we shall visit the property from here...

Walking up the stone pathway, we are immediately greeted by the pool, sun decks and pool house straight ahead... Uninterrupted views can be enjoyed in all directions from the beautifully-landscaped gardens, whether you might wish to contemplate the rolling hills of the nearby villages of Cabris and Speracedes in the north, or Grasse and the Southern Alps to the east, or indeed the deep blue of the magnificent Mediterranean coast to the south. The grass lawns are beautifully-kept, maintained by an automatic sprinkler system, and the nicely-trimmed citrus fruit trees and shrubs bear witness to the care and attention that this lovely property has always received from its owners over the years.

The renovated pool boasts a solar-powered cover / security system and the pool house is a very comfortable 35m² with a fully-equipped summer kitchen, a sunken lounge area with flat screen TV and a dining area with adjoining terrace, the perfect combination for many a family gathering! From here the beautiful façade of the house can be admired, with its own lovely, shaded terraces.

The double staircase in front of the house leads up to the front door and a comfortable covered terrace of 28m², also accessible from the ...
