A breathtaking Maison de Maître dating from 1830, offering over 757m² of sumptuous living space in the heart of a charming Minervois village close to Narbonne. This extraordinarily rare residence captivates from the moment you arrive with its magnificent façade, majestic stone staircase, soaring ceilings, ornate corniced mouldings,

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the heart of an authentic and vibrant wine-producing village close to the historic city of Narbonne, this exceptional Maison de Maître and its independent guest house offer a rare blend of timeless French elegance, lifestyle luxury, and outstanding business potential. Beautifully renovated by the current owners in 2015, while modern additions such as reversible air conditioning, double glazing and luxurious Hansgrohe- German fitted bathrooms ensure absolute comfort throughout.

The principal residence of 543m² unfolds across three impressive floors and offers nine elegant bedrooms alongside six beautifully appointed bathrooms. Designed for both luxurious family living and entertaining on a grand scale, the property features spectacular reception rooms filled with natural light and character. On the garden level, a spacious fully equipped kitchen flows seamlessly into a games area, cinema room, and a superb covered terrace — the perfect setting for long summer lunches, evening gatherings, and relaxed Mediterranean living.

Outside, the enchanting private gardens create a peaceful oasis, mature greenery, and a stunning heated swimming pool, offering complete privacy and tranquillity.

Adding even further charm and versatility, the independent 213m² guest house is equally impressive. Rich in character with exposed stone walls and elegant finishes, it centres around a magnificent 50m² kitchen and dining area opening directly onto a private terrace with plunge pool...
