Properties like this are very rare in our villages. Nestled in a tiny hillside hamlet overlooking the Cère Valley, this former manor house and its converted barn enjoy truly breathtaking views.

The barn was redesigned by an architect and offers an impressive

DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity: a magnificent property combining contemporary design, modern comfort, and historic character. Located in a small hamlet just 10 minutes from Biars-sur-Cère and 15 minutes from Beaulieu-sur-Dordogne. Perfectly positioned for enjoying nature, exploring the Cère and Dordogne rivers by canoe, and discovering the countless attractions and some of France's most beautiful villages nearby.

MAIN HOUSE (Converted Barn)

The main house, approximately 160 m², was renovated by an architect and offers single-level living with spectacular proportions. Built over cellars and a garage, it comprises:

- A cathedral-style living room with open-plan kitchen of over 90 m², featuring an open fireplace
- A mezzanine of approximately 30 m²
- Two en-suite bedrooms: one of approximately 25 m² and another of approximately 15 m²
- A terrace of approximately 20 m² extending directly from the living area

TECHNICAL FEATURES

- Double glazing
- Open fireplace
- Compliant septic system
- Fully renovated roof
- Terrace renovated in 2025
- Oil-fired central heating and fireplace

OUTBUILDINGS

Cellars, laundry room, garage, workshops with water supply and WC, and various storage areas, totalling approximately 190 m².

MANOR HOUSE (Second House)

The second house is a charming manor house with a large living area and four bedrooms, ideal for accommodating family and friends or generating rental income.
