A rare opportunity to acquire an exceptional private hamlet set within six hectares of glorious Aveyron countryside. This remarkable estate comprises three beautifully presented stone houses, a self-contained studio and a superb 190 m² entertaining annexe. Offering nine bedrooms plus the studio, it is ideal for extended family, guests or a

DESCRIPTION

Set amid six hectares of rolling countryside, this exceptional private hamlet offers an increasingly rare combination of character, privacy and versatility. Three traditional stone houses and a substantial entertaining annexe are arranged around attractive cobbled courtyards, with lauze-style roofs, green timber shutters, mature planting and far-reaching views creating an enchanting sense of place.

THE MAIN HOUSE

The principal residence is a beautifully presented three-bedroom stone house offering approximately 240 m² of habitable accommodation, where original features blend comfortably with modern improvements.

On the ground floor:

A generous kitchen (25 m²) includes extensive cabinetry, a substantial range cooker and a large central island with breakfast-bar seating, complemented by a separate utility and preparation room (16 m²). The welcoming lounge and dining area (35 m²) retains painted ceiling beams, timber flooring and a handsome stone fireplace with wood-burning stove. Double doors open onto a covered terrace (35 m²), creating an inviting outdoor living and dining space overlooking the lake and magnificent countryside.

A self-contained studio (29 m²), comprising a small kitchen and shower room, can be accessed independently through the glazed garden room from either the courtyard or garden, as well as internally from the main house utility room. The glazed garden room (31 m²) offers an additional place to relax and enjoy views of the grounds.
