Stunning stone property at the end of a quiet lane near Plouguenast-Langast, surrounded by rolling Breton countryside and close to lively village amenities. With 7 bedrooms, 5 bathrooms, a cosy lounge and a spacious games room—each with a woodburner—this home is ideal for gatherings. Enjoy an in-ground

DESCRIPTION

This remarkable stone property, built in 1863, sits proudly at the end of a quiet lane, offering privacy, space and timeless Breton charm. Arriving along the gravelled driveway, the scale of the house immediately impresses, with ample parking for numerous vehicles and a welcoming sense of arrival.

Inside, a wide entrance hallway sets the tone with tiled underfloor heating and a high ceiling that enhances the feeling of space. To the left is a large room with a woodburner, currently used as a games room but easily adaptable into a generous ground-floor bedroom. At the end of the hallway, a door leads directly to the rear garden, ideal for summer living. This level also includes a practical laundry room, a WC, and a spacious bathroom perfectly positioned for use when coming in from the garden or pool.

Opposite the games room is the main lounge, a bright, inviting space with a woodburner set into the fireplace. Stairs rise from this room to the first floor. Beyond the lounge is the kitchen, designed for sociability and everyday comfort. A large U-shaped island houses the oven and hob, with bar stools creating a natural gathering point. A wood-fired stove adds warmth and character, and underfloor heating continues throughout both the lounge and kitchen.

Off the kitchen is a beautiful summer room, with exposed beams and a stone floor—an atmospheric space perfect for relaxing in any season. This room opens directly onto the garden. A further door leads from the kitchen i...
