A rare 16-hectare estate in the heart of the Monts d'Arrée, set at the end of a private road with no immediate neighbours and direct access to walking trails. The property comprises a beautifully renovated 149m² main house (DPE A), two furnished gîtes of approximately 90m² and 44m², extensive agricultural buildings including a 762m²

DESCRIPTION

Tucked away at the end of a private road in the spectacular Monts d'Arrée, this exceptional rural estate offers privacy, space and remarkable potential in one of Brittany's most distinctive natural landscapes.

With approximately 16 hectares of land, three renovated residences, extensive agricultural buildings and several traditional stone properties, the estate has the atmosphere of its own private hamlet. There are no immediate neighbours or overlooking properties, while walking paths and trails lead directly from the estate into the surrounding countryside.

A further 4 hectares of adjoining land may also be available to purchase or rent, subject to the arrangements of the sale.

The Main House – approx. 149m² – DPE A

The main residence extends to approximately 149m² of habitable space and has undergone a recent, high-quality renovation, carefully planned with the involvement of an interior architect.

The design is deliberately clean, elegant and understated, allowing the volumes, natural light and materials to take centre stage. Particular attention has been paid to functionality, comfort and the quality of the finishes, successfully combining the character of the original building with contemporary living.

Ground floor:

The heart of the house is the generous 37m² living and dining room, providing an inviting space for everyday living and entertaining.

Alongside is a 17m² fitted kitchen, complemented by a practical 9.5m² utility room.

There is also a 5...
