DESCRIPTION

A superb, renovated 15th-century Manor House, situated on the outskirts of Tulle and built on a hill overlooking the valley, with magnificent views of the Limousin countryside, the Manor House covers 420 m² and features some truly beautiful decorative elements: the original white marble floor with garnet inlays, mullioned windows, granite archways and beautiful ironwork throughout. The rooms are light and airy: a spacious 40 m² reception room with a fireplace housing a wood-pellet burner. This cosy, authentic room opens onto the terrace and the garden grounds. There are eight bedrooms, as well as a self-contained flat on the garden level comprising 2 bedrooms, a shower room (shower and washbasin) and separate toilet. A kitchenette could be fitted if required.

The grounds comprise meadows and woodland and offer a high degree of privacy.

The terrace in front of the manor house offers a lovely view over the grounds.

A slice of heaven, a haven of peace to dream of knights and princesses or to get away from the daily busy life.
