Located in a pretty village near Orthez in south-west France, this charming maison-de-maître has so much to offer...

Built in about 1630, this historic 7-bedroom property is an ideal size for a wonderful family home and would also suit a multigenerational

DESCRIPTION

Set in landscaped grounds of 3,462m², this delightful village property comprises a 17th-century maison-de-maître, a two-storey barn, a large swimming pool and two up-and-running B&B suites.

Located in the beautiful Béarn, the property is ideal for anyone searching for a unique and characterful family home or a spacious holiday home. You also have the option of converting the barn into more living space or gîtes - and you can immediately generate an income by offering accommodation to visitors in your two B&B suites!

Decorative metal gates open into the property's sunny courtyard, which has room for outdoor parking. The two-storey barn, with room for 2 cars, is opposite the gates; the maison-de-maître is to the right of the courtyard.

From the courtyard, the front door of the maison-de-maître opens into a fabulous open-plan reception room of about 75m² with a sitting area and a dining area. The sitting area has a large open fireplace; the dining area has a wooden staircase to the upper floors.

A door from the sitting area opens into a small corridor and doors to a guest WC and a spa & wellness room, which is equipped with a handbasin and a shower cubicle. This room could be used as an additional bedroom.

From the dining area, an archway opens into a lovely kitchen, which has an adjoining utility room, as well as a door out to a covered terrace overlooking the swimming pool and landscaped grounds.

From the kitchen, a second staircase leads up to a B&B suite on...
