Unique historic estate in Southern Ardèche This exceptional 12th-century estate offers 700 m² of floor space (325 m² living area) set on 5.68 hectares of private land.

Main Mas: Spacious living room with fireplace, 30 m² kitchen-diner, 7

DESCRIPTION

Unique historical estate in the south of the Ardèche, in the mountains between Aubenas and Ruoms – a property with endless possibilities

An exceptional historic estate with origins dating back to the 12th century. A rare combination of authenticity, space, privacy, and potential. The total floor area measures approximately 700 m², of which around 325 m² is currently set up as living space. The entire property is set on an impressive 5.68 hectares of private land.

This remarkable estate offers a wealth of options: a luxurious and expansive private residence, a stylish B&B with separate private living quarters, or a commercial venture using the reception spaces for events, weddings, corporate conferences, yoga retreats, or multi-gîte rentals.

A character estate featuring a striking courtyard You enter through a characteristic gateway into a large, multi-level courtyard. The estate is built in a grand U-shape, enclosed by an authentic natural stone wall that creates a private, secluded atmosphere. Connecting the wings is the old Mas—the historic heart of the domain. The ground floor features several authentic cellar spaces, while an ancient stone staircase leads to the 48 m² terrace providing entry into the main house.

The old Mas – character, space, and comfort The entrance hall features a classic stone staircase leading to the upper floors. From here, you reach a spacious kitchen-diner (approx. 30 m²) followed by a grand living room of nearly 40 m² with a co...
